Selected List

CURRENT BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS

Second Half 1957

(Items Published in 1955, 1956, and 1957 Only)

HOLBROOK LIBRARY
PACIFIC SCHOOL
OF RELIGION

Added to the Collection of

THE MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY

Between July 1, and December 31, 1957

3041 Broadway
New York 27, New York

REF.
Z
7817
N420s
1957:2

58337

f
Z
7817
N420s
1957:2
Red

New York. Missionary research library

Foreword

For several years the Missionary Research Library has published an annual selected list of its accessions for the use of mission boards, libraries, and other supporters and friends of the M. R. L.

The SELECTED LIST OF CURRENT BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS is now published twice a year. The present issue includes accessions from July through December, 1957; no titles published before 1955 are listed. Only the more important pamphlets have been included, and a few selected government documents. The arrangement of books in this Selected List has been somewhat revised, in the light of changing trends in the World Mission of the Church, and for easier reference.

The Missionary Research Library does not act as agent for purchasing books. Orders should be sent direct to the publishers or through your own book agency.

Prices listed for United Nations publications are United States prices since these publications may be obtained at the International Documents Service of Columbia University Press in New York City. In the case of foreign publications, the price has been given in the currency of the country of publication, whenever this information is readily available. Your local book agent or library can indicate where foreign publications may be secured in this country. Friendship Press is the agent for Edinburgh House and the World Dominion Press. Student Christian Movement publications may be secured from Macmillan; most Lutterworth Press items, along with many other British publications on missions, may be purchased from Alex R. Allenson, Inc.

Periodicals and reports are not listed. The Missionary Research Library has published an Occasional Bulletin (Vol. VIII, No. 4, March 29, 1957), Current Periodicals in the M. R. L., Alphabetical List and Indexes. Price: Fifty cents.

The staff of the Missionary Research Library cooperates in the preparation of book annotations for the Selected List.

Werner Rode
Associate Librarian

Additional copies of this Selected List and of previous annual Selected Lists may be purchased at fifty cents each. Payment with order will be appreciated.

HOLBROOK LIBRARY
PACIFIC SCHOOL
OF RELIGION

MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY
3041 Broadway
New York 27, New York

December, 1957

Contents

I. HISTORY
- A. History of Missions 1
- B. History of Missionary Societies 1
- C. Church History 1
- D. Ecumenical Movement; Church Union and Cooperation 1
- E. Roman Catholic Missions 2

II. BIOGRAPHY
- A. Missionaries 2
- B. National Christians 4
- C. General 4

III. THEORY AND PRINCIPLES OF MISSIONS; THEOLOGY OF MISSIONS 5

IV. MISSIONARY METHODS
- A. Evangelism and Church Work; Communication of the Gospel 5
- B. Christian Education 5
- C. Christian Literature and Literacy Education; Bible Translation 6
- D. Audio-Visual Communications 6
- E. Medical Missions 6
- F. Rural and Agricultural Missions 6
- G. General Description of Missionary Activities 7
- H. Administration and Promotion of Missions; Training of Missionary Personnel 7
- I. Other Methods and Problems 7

V. REFERENCE
- A. Missions 7
- B. Yearbooks and Directories 7
- C. Bibliographies and General 8

VI. AREAS AND COUNTRIES: GENERAL, MISSIONS, CHURCHES
- A. North America 9
- B. The Caribbean Islands and the Guianas 9
- C. Latin America 10
- D. Europe 10
- E. Africa (South of the Sahara) 11
- F. Near East, Middle East and North Africa 13
- G. Central Asia 15
- H. Southern Asia 15
- I. South East Asia 16
- J. East Asia 17
- K. Pacific Islands 20
- L. Australia and New Zealand 20
- M. General 21

VII. CHRISTIANITY AND NON-CHRISTIAN RELIGIONS; OTHER IDEOLOGIES
- A. Religions of Primitive Peoples 21
- B. The Great Non-Christian Religions 21
- C. Judaism 23
- D. Communism 23
- E. General and Other Religions 24

VIII. SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCE 24

IX. ANTHROPOLOGY AND RELATED SUBJECTS 26

X. THEOLOGICAL, WORSHIP AND DEVOTIONAL 26

XI. PUBLICATIONS OF THE MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY 27

XII. INDEX TO SHORTENED NAMES OF PUBLISHERS 28

I. History

A. HISTORY OF MISSIONS

1. Quale, G. Robina.
   The Mission Compound in Modern China: The Role of the United States Protestant Mission as an Asylum in the Civil and International Strife of China, 1900-41. (Ph.D. Thesis). Ann Arbor, University of Michigan, 1957. 311 p. The first comprehensive study of this interesting subject, based on exhaustive research, carefully documented and exceptionally well written. Copy deposited in M.R.L.

See also: 96.

B. HISTORY OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

2. Barclay, Wade Crawford.
   The Methodist Episcopal Church 1845-1939; Widening Horizons 1845-95. (History of Methodist Missions, part 2, v. 3) N.Y., The Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, 1957. 1211 p. $4.50 This long awaited volume will prove invaluable because of the excellent scholarship involved, the importance of the denomination, and the significance of the period covered.

3. Eckel, W. A.
   The Pendulum Swings. Kansas City, Beacon Hill, 1957. 144 p. $1.00 The 1957-1958 Missionary Study Book of the Church of the Nazarene. The first part is a readable survey of the "Japanese background." Part II tells the story of Nazarene missions in Japan.

4. Latourette, Kenneth Scott.
   World Service; A History of the Foreign Work and World Service of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States and Canada. N.Y., Association Press, 1958. 489 p. $5.00 A definitive history of Y.M.C.A. service over nearly a century in 42 countries, based upon all available records and archives; written with excellent arrangement and with clarity of style by a world-famous scholar of missions.

5. Sauer, Erich.
   50 Jahre Missionshaus Bibelschule Wiedenest. Wiedenest, Deutschland, Missionshaus Bibelschule Wiedenest, 1955. 76 p. DM 2.20 History of the mission-house and Bible-school of Wiedenest written for their fiftieth anniversary.

See also: 98, 114.

C. CHURCH HISTORY

6. Lilje, Hanns and others.
   Lutheran Churches of the World. Minneapolis, Minn., Augsburg, 1957. 333 p. $3.50 A picture of world-wide Lutheranism presented by the Church's outstanding representatives with stories of their respective church bodies, their growth and their development, and a meaningful view of Lutheran faith and work and its impact on today's world.

7. O'Dea, Thomas F.
   The Mormons. Chicago, University of Chicago Press, 1957. 289 p. $5.00 The story of how and why a small sect has become a substantial American religious group; a clear and objective study.

8. Tisserant, Eugène, Cardinal.
   Eastern Christianity in India. Translated from the French by E. R. Hombye. Westminster, Md., Newman Press, 1957. 266 p. $4.75 The history of the Syrian Church of Malabar; early developments of Christianity in India, and Christian contacts with other Asian communities and with the western world; the secession movement in the 17th Century; and recent progress. The author is a foremost scholar of the Orthodox Church.

See also: 127, 158, 208.

D. ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT; CHURCH UNION AND COOPERATION

9. Garrison, Winifred E.
   The Quest and Character of a United Church. N.Y., Abingdon, 1957. 238 p. $3.50 True church unity will not come by any one imposed form of government, doctrine or worship; liberty and variety are essential within the universal Christian fellowship. A clarifying and relevant interpretation.

10. Heinecken, Martin J.
Christ Frees and Unites. Philadelphia, Pa., Muhlenberg, 1957. 111 p. $2.00 Under the theme of the Lutheran World Assembly, Minneapolis 1957, the author presents five lectures on efforts toward unity in the Church, as well as on the freedom given in such unity, which includes freedom both to reform the church and to serve in the world.

11. Lutheran World Federation. Department of Theology.
The Unity of the Church; a Symposium. Rock Island, Ill., Augustana, 1957. 167 p. $3.00 Thoughtful and stimulating essays by fourteen European and American Lutheran scholars, dealing with problems today in achieving unity within Lutheranism and among all the branches of the Church.

12. Negotiation Committee for Church Union in North India and Pakistan.
Plan of Church Union in North India and Pakistan. 3rd ed. Madras, India, Christian Literature Society, 1957. 64 p. Re 1/- Revision of the Plan which was made in April 1957 for presentation to the governing bodies of churches in North India and Pakistan.

See also: 45, 63, 217.

E. ROMAN CATHOLIC MISSIONS

13. Burke, Thomas J. M., S.J.
Beyond All Horizons; Jesuits and the Missions. Garden City, N.Y., Hanover House, 1957. 288 p. $3.75 The Society's mission is typified by its outstanding missionaries from Ricci down to our days, in essays by various Jesuit scholars.

14. Galter, Albert.
The Redbook of the Persecuted Church. Westminster, Md., Newman Press, 1957. 491 p. $5.75 A carefully documented history of the persecution of Roman Catholic Churches in all Communist countries; the story is brought up to March 1957.

15. Monestier, Marianne.
Les Jésuites et l'Extrême-Orient. Paris, La Table Ronde, 1956. 285 p. $2.15 A survey of four centuries of work in China, Japan, and India by the Society of Jesus; the leaders and their activities, the martyrs, and the present situation.

16. Monsterleet, Jean.
Martyrs in China. Translated from the French by Antonia Pakenham. Chicago, Regnery, 1957. 288 p. $4.95 Record of the persecutions and martyrdoms that the Roman Catholic Church in China -- missionaries, bishops, priests, laity, students, orphanage directors, and church members -- have suffered from 1949 to the present time. An unadorned and moving narrative of faith and courage.

17. Nevins, Albert J.
Adventures of Men of Maryknoll. N.Y., Dodd, Mead, 1957. 255 p. $3.00 Sixteen true and exciting stories about Roman Catholic "missioners" of the American Maryknoll Fathers who serve in many lands, written by the editor of Maryknoll magazine.

18. Salinas, Fray Diego de Cordova, O.F.M.
Cronica Franciscana de las Provincias del Peru. New Edition with Notes and Introduction by Lino G. Canedo, O.F.M. Washington, D.C., Academy of American Franciscan History, 1957. 1195 p. $16.00 This monumental work on the religious history of the New World covers the entire vast scope of activities carried on by the Franciscans during the first 150 years of the Spanish era; a great deal of information and data on subjects like art, ethnography, ethnology and general history is also included.

See also: 22, 79.

II. Biography

A. MISSIONARIES

19. Bachmann, Traugott.
Ich gab manchen Anstoss. Nach den Aufzeichnungen Traugott Bachmanns zusammengestellt, bearbeitet und herausgegeben von Hans-Windekilde Jannasch. Hamburg, Appel, 195?. 279 p. DM 7.50 The life story of an Africa missionary of the Moravian Brethren, based on his own notes. Beyond the biographical interest it commends attention as a contribution to the history of culture and ethnology.

20. Brown, Arthur Judson.
Memoirs of a Centenarian. Edited by William N. Wysham. N.Y., World Horizons, 1957 174 p. Recollections and reflections of the Secretary Emeritus of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

21. Coles, Samuel B.
Preacher with a Plow. Boston, Houghton Mifflin, 1957. 241 p. $3.50 Sam Coles, the son of American slaves, spent thirty-three years as a missionary in Portuguese West Africa. "This is the story of one man's 'Point IV' program for changing the people of his own race...into self-supporting and self-respecting farmers."

22. Del Rey, Sister Maria.
Her Name Is Mercy. N.Y., Scribner, 1957. 184 p. $3.95 A moving story, highly readable, of the relief work done by Maryknoll Sisters in Korea since 1951, care of refugees and medical service culminating in the erection of a new 16-bed hospital.

23. Elfers, August.
Der Zimmermann von Aira. Hermannsburg, Deutschland, Missionsbuchhandlung, 1956. 92 p. DM 1.80 Story of missionary life in Gallaland, Ethiopia.

24. Haskin, Dorothy C.
Medical Missionaries You Would Like to Know. Grand Rapids, Mich., Zondervan, 1957. 89 p. $1.50 Biographies of ten medical missionaries in eight countries, emphasizing their exciting experiences and contributions to evangelism, told in popular style.

25. Lehmann, Arno, ed.
Alte Briefe aus Indien; Unveröffentlichte Briefe von Bartholomäus Ziegenbalg, 1706-1719. Berlin, Evangelische Verlagsanstalt. 552 p. Formerly unpublished letters of the famous missionary to India are now made available, out of the archives of the Franke-Stiftung, Halle, Germany.

26. Mendus, E. Lewis.
The Diary of a Jungle Missionary. Liverpool, England, Foreign Mission Office, 1956. 90 p. 4/- Vivid description of missionary life in the jungles of the North Lushai Hills, Assam, by a former Welsh Presbyterian missionary.

27. Myers, Mary E.
My Hall of Memory. London, Epworth Press, 1956. 90 p. $1.25 Interesting reminiscences of a missionary nurse of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, in China, in Russia during World War I, and again in China, told with humility and with deep love for her adopted people.

28. Noble, W. J.
Something to Remember. London, Cargate, 1957. 182 p. 10/6 Autobiography by a one-time missionary to Ceylon who also served for twenty-five years as a General Secretary at the Mission House of the Methodist Missionary Society.

29. Payne, Robert.
The Three Worlds of Albert Schweitzer. N.Y., Nelson, 1957. 252 p. $3.50 "This present work is an attempt to uncover the more inspiring portrait of the complete man against the background of his three worlds: the world of music, the world of theology, and the world of medicine."

30. Ride, Lindsay.
Robert Morrison; the Scholar and the Man. Hong Kong, Hong Kong University Press, 1957. 48 p. Biography "and illustrated catalogue of the exhibition held at the University of Hong Kong September fourth to eighteenth 1957 to commemorate the 150th Anniversary of Robert Morrison's arrival in China."

31. Seamands, Ruth.
Missionary Mama. N.Y., Greenwich, 1957. 128 p. $2.75 "The lighter side of the labors of those who serve the Lord in strange exotic vineyards, revealed in delightfully realistic letters from India."

32. Seaver, George.
David Livingstone; His Life and Letters. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 650 p. $6.95 A magnificent biography that makes Livingstone live for our time. This important work is based upon exhaustive new researches, by the author of Albert Schweitzer: The Man and His Mind.

33. Smith, Edwin W.
Great Lion of Bechuanaland; the Life and Times of Roger Price, Missionary. London, Independent Press, 1957. 444 p. 32/6 Fascinating and well-written biography of one of the great pioneers of the Christian missionary enterprise, based on his own letters and diaries.

See also: 13, 16, 17, 116, 131, 198.

B. NATIONAL CHRISTIANS

34. Ebizawa, Norimichi.
Japanese Witnesses for Christ. (World Christian Books, No. 20). London, United Society for Christian Literature, 1957. 90 p. 2/6 Five short biographies of outstanding early Christian nationals, written by Japanese who knew them. Gives a good insight into the difficult problems which they faced, and the devotion and sacrifice which they offered to advance the Christian witness.

35. Ramachandra Rao, D.S.
Dhannavada Anantam. (Dhannavada Anantam Rao, 1850-1949). Calcutta, Y.M.C.A. Publishing House, 1956. 196 p. Rs 3/- Biography of an extraordinary Indian Christian leader based upon a manuscript of the Canon's own recollections as well as the author's reminiscences of his father's life.

36. Sen, Premanand Anath Nath.
Premanand; a Servant of Daridra Narayan. Delhi, S.P.C.K., 1956. 142 p. Rs 2/- Autobiography of a one-time high caste Hindu, who became an ardent follower of Christ and a worker among the lepers and poor in India.

37. Williams, Walter R. and Myrtle M.
Me and My House. Grand Rapids, Mich., Eerdman, 1957. 187 p. $3.00 Biographical account of the George DeVol family. "In the finest Quaker tradition of simplicity and restraint the authors have treated the several interrelated 'careers' of the members of an extraordinary Quaker family."

See also: 116.

C. GENERAL

38. Farwell, Byron.
The Man Who Presumed; a Biography of Henry M. Stanley. N.Y., Holt, 1957. 334 p. $5.00 "From research in personal journals and letters and with the help of Stanley's descendants", the author "has discovered the complex motivations that drove"... Stanley "into a life of determined action." He brings full dimension and understanding to the man and excitement and authority to his adventures.

39. Rampa, T. Lobsang.
The Third Eye; the Autobiography of a Tibetan Lama. Garden City, N.Y., Doubleday, 1957. 256 p. $3.50 Memoirs, written in a charming and simple style, of a strange and colorful life. After long years of training in the Chakpori Lamasery the author was led via Chungking and participation in the Chinese-Japanese war to Japan as a prisoner of war, to Russia as a fugitive after Hiroshima, to Poland as an expellee, to France as a refugee, to the U.S.A. and finally to England, where he now lives.

40. Rand, Christopher.
A Nostalgia for Camels. (An Atlantic Monthly Press Book). Boston, Toronto, Little, Brown, 1957. 279 p. $3.75 A series of sketches of personalities designed to create an impression of Asia today. The people include: the French architect Le Corbusier, Tenzing Norkay, Vinoba Bhave, a courteous and artistic Chinese gentleman, and a Central Asian who longs for the camels of his native land.

41. Vega y Pagan, Ernesto.
Military Biography of Generalissimo Rafael Leonidas Trujillo Molina; Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces. Translated from the Spanish by Ida Espaillat. Ciudad Trujillo, D.R., Editorial Atenas, 1956. 199 p. Well documented and illustrated biographical account of the "benefactor and father of the new Dominican Nation."

See also: 116, 244.

III. Theory and Principles of Missions; Theology of Missions

42. Beaver, R. Pierce.
The Christian World Mission. Calcutta, Baptist Mission Press, 1957. 42 p. Rs 1/25 The William Carey Lectures for 1957 delivered at Serampore; a fresh interpretation of the world mission in the light of swiftly changing conditions and needs in Asia.

43. Forman, Charles W.
A Faith for the Nations. Philadelphia, Westminster, 1957. 94 p. $1.00 A dynamic little book on the Christian world mission, in the Laymen's Theological Library series. The foundation for world unity is in what God has done for all men through Christ.

44. Herbert, Gabriel.
Fundamentalism and the Church. Philadelphia, Westminster, 1957. 156 p. $3.00 A penetrating discussion of fundamentalism in world-wide Christianity, with fair judgments on its strength and weaknesses and an earnest plea for cooperation and unity between Fundamentalists and other groups. The author is a theological teacher and Student Christian Movement leader in Australia.

45. Hutchinson, Paul.
The New Ordeal of Christianity. N.Y., Association Press, 1957. 128 p. $2.50 The late editor of the Christian Century briefly outlines the struggles and crises confronting all branches of the Christian community. He delineates these problems for Roman Catholicism, Eastern Orthodoxy, world and American Protestantism.

46. Jeremias, Joachim.
Jesu Verheissung für die Völker. Stuttgart, Deutschland, Kohlhammer, 1956. 69 p. DM 7.50 Philological exegesis of the biblical foundation of Jesus' eschatological understanding of his mission to mankind; missions today as "realized eschatology", as actual proof of the eschatological fulfillment of God's promise already now.

47. Rembao, Alberto.
Pneuma; los Fundamentos Teologicos dela Cultura. Mexico, D.F., Centro Evangelico Unido, 1957. 212 p. Analysis of the theological foundation of Spanish culture, with a final chapter on the situation of Protestantism in Latin America.

48. Thomson, James Sutherland.
The Divine Mission. Toronto, United Church Publishing House, 1957. 81 p. These MacKay Memorial Lectures on the theology of missions attempt a restatement of the missionary character of the Christian faith "in terms of the Christian doctrine of God." The titles of the three lectures are: "Our Missionary God," "The Mission of Jesus Christ," "The Missionary Spirit."

49. Ulrich, Heinrich-Hermann.
Die Kirche und ihre missionarische Aufgabe. (Studien für Evangelisation und Volksmission, Band 1). Berlin, Christlicher Zeitschriftenverlag, 1955. 200 p. DM 5.80 Facts and problems of evangelization in Germany today seen from an ecumenical perspective.

See also: 49, 118, 163.

IV. Missionary Methods

A. EVANGELISM AND CHURCH WORK; COMMUNICATION OF THE GOSPEL

50. Shaw, Trevor and Grace.
Through Ebony Eyes; Evangelism Through Journalism in West Africa. London, Lutterworth, 1956. 96 p. 3/6 An account of the influence that evangelism through a modern medium has upon the literate masses in Africa.

B. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

51. Conference On Asian Affairs.
Survey of Summer Programs on Asia for Non-Specialists. Final Report. N.Y., 1957. 35 p. Evaluation of summer programs based upon questionnaires to participants in six programs held in 1956, and upon informal personal interviews.

52. Dean, Vera Micheles.
The American Student and the Non-Western World. Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 1956. 28 p. $1.50 The Inglis lecture on secondary education on the importance of teaching the non-Western cultural heritage in American colleges and universities.

53. U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.
Education For Better Living. (Education Around the World, 1957. Bulletin 1956, No. 9) Washington, D.C., Government Printing Office, 1957. 339 p. $1.50 Experts from various countries discuss in essay-form "the role of the school in community improvement," showing some programs already in action, some common tasks, and some common understandings.

54. Wilson, Howard E.
American College Life as Education in World Outlook. Washington, D.C., American Council of Education, 1956. 195 p. $3.50 Analysis of the role "outside activities" play in the life of American college students.

See also: 98, 117.

C. CHRISTIAN LITERATURE AND LITERACY EDUCATION; BIBLE TRANSLATION

55. Anshen, Ruth Nanda, ed.
Language: An Inquiry Into Its Meaning and Function. (Science and Culture Series, v. 8) N.Y., Harper, 1957. 366 p. $4.50 Inquiry into the question what language is in its variability as well as in its permanence and in its relation to the thought and history of man; a compilation of essays by various people gathered together under two viewpoints, the principle and the application of language.

56. Conference on Christian Literature for the Bantu of Southern Africa.
Christian Literature for the Bantu of Southern Africa. Johannesburg, S.A., The Continuation Committee of South African Churches, 1957. 159 p. 10/- Conference report presenting the various addresses and papers as well as the conference resolutions which were adopted.

See also: 80.

D. AUDIO-VISUAL COMMUNICATIONS

(no entries)

E. MEDICAL MISSIONS

57. Lovejoy, Esther Pohl.
Women Doctors of the World. N.Y., Macmillan, 1957. 413 p. $5.95 "The first complete, carefully documented report of the activities of modern medical women," by the former President of the American Medical Women's Association. Many missionaries and national Christians are included in this interesting narrative of medical service in fifty-four countries.

58. Müller, Samuel.
Ärzte in aller Welt; das Buch der ärztlichen Mission. Stuttgart, Deutschland, Evangelischer Missionsverlag, 1957. 248 p. DM 12.80 This book makes known the invaluable contribution of modern medical missionary work and its help in spreading the Gospel.

See also: 24, 29.

F. RURAL AND AGRICULTURAL MISSIONS

59. Comfort, Richard O.
The Village Church in West Pakistan. N.Y., NCCC-U.S.A., Division of Home Missions, 1957. 194 p. "Report of a Consultation Held Under the Auspices of the West Pakistan Christian Council, Nov. 10, 1956 to April 1, 1957," together with a survey of rural churches.

60. Moomaw, I. W.
Deep Furrows. N.Y., Agricultural Missions, 1957. 192 p. $2.50 A practical guide for rural missionaries, drawn from actual experience in many countries. Extension service, leadership training, the village family and church, work with youth, cooperatives, village industries, are among the interesting topics discussed. Excellent illustrations add to the value of the book.

61. Mosher, Arthur T.
Technical Co-operation in Latin-American Agriculture. Chicago, University of Chicago Press, 1957. 449 p. $6.00 An extensive and thorough study of the technical aid to agriculture in Latin America, provided by a variety of United States and international agencies during the past decade, followed by an over-all assessment. The author is a well-known former agricultural missionary to India.

See also: 90, 113, 121, 132, 264.

G. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF MISSIONARY ACTIVITIES

62. Campbell, Paul and Howard, Peter.
America Needs an Ideology. London, Muller, 1957. 184 p. 10/6 Examples of the work of Moral Re-Armament in bringing about changes in Africa, Asia, the Near East, Europe and America.

63. Lilje, Hanns.
Welt unter Gott; Rechenschaft einer Reise. Nürnberg, Deutschland, Laetare, 1956. 113 p. DM 6.80 Account of a tour around the world by the Bishop of the Lutheran Church of Hannover, Germany, with penetrating insights into the religious, political and economic situation of countries visited.

64. North American Baptist General Conference.
Go; a Graphic Portrayal of a Christian Mission at Work in the Cameroons, West Africa. Forest Park, Ill., 1957. 64 p. $1.00 Portrayal of the Cameroons Baptist Mission U.S.A., at work in the British Cameroons, finely illustrated; also much statistical information.

See also: 97, 114, 118, 162, 209, 213.

H. ADMINISTRATION AND PROMOTION OF MISSIONS; TRAINING OF MISSIONARY PERSONNEL

See: 66.

I. OTHER METHODS AND PROBLEMS

65. Tournier, Paul.
The Meaning of Persons. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 238 p. $3.75 Stimulating observations by a distinguished Swiss psychiatrist on the struggle of both, the patients and their doctor "to become authentic persons", based on the author's strong religious convictions.

See also: 145.

V. Reference

A. MISSIONS

66. Moyer, Kenyon E.
A Study of Missionary Motivation, Training, and Withdrawal (1932-1952). N.Y., M.R.L., 1957. 70 p. $2.00 "Based on Questionnaires Answered by 915 Missionaries Who Represent 16 North American Mission Boards." Chapters include: Fluctuations in Total Personnel, 1937-1952; Missionary Call and Training; Evaluation of Missionary Work and Experience; and Reasons for Withdrawal.

See also: 30.

B. YEARBOOKS AND DIRECTORIES

67. Conference on Asian Affairs.
American Institutions and Organizations Interested in Asia. Edited by Ward Morehouse. N.Y., Taplinger, 1957. 510 p. $9.50 A reference directory on current activities related to Asia. It gives a description of more than 600 programs of universities, religious and educational institutions, foundations, libraries, etc., including teaching and research programs.

68. Landis, Benson Y., ed.
Yearbook of American Churches. 1958. N.Y., NCCC-U.S.A., 1957. 322 p. $5.00 Twenty-sixth issue of the familiar yearbook which gives "information on all the faiths in the U.S.A."

69. The Middle East 1957. London, Europa, 1957. 444 p. $13.50 The fifth edition of the familiar survey and directory of the countries of the Middle East.

70. NCC of Japan. The Christian Literature Society.
Japan Christian Yearbook, 1957. Edited by Kiyoshi Hirai. Tokyo, Christian Literature Society (N.Y., Friendship Press), 1957. 424 p. $1.90 One of the best to be published in recent years, the 1957 Japan Christian Yearbook presents articles of outstanding merit in the following four fields: The General Situation in Japan, The Christian Movement, The Churches, and Reports of Christian Work.

71. Thomas, Winburn T., transl.
Directory (Tentative): Non-Roman Religious Bodies in Indonesia. Djakarta, Indonesia, privately issued (mimeographed), 1957. 24 p. Translated and annotated from a document issued by the Ministry of Religions.

72. University of Madras. The Indian Study Group of International Affairs.
Indian Year Book of International Affairs. v. 4+5. Madras, 1955 + 1956. 429 + 328 p. $3.50 each. These annual volumes are excellent expositions of expert Indian opinion on international and comparative law and international affairs.

C. BIBLIOGRAPHIES AND GENERAL

73. Dockstader, Frederick J., comp.
The American Indian in Graduate Studies; a Bibliography of Theses and Dissertations. N.Y., Museum of the American Indian, 1957. 399 p. $5.00 A list of "theses and dissertations which deal in any way with the American Indian, as presented for graduate degree requirements at colleges and universities in the U.S., Canada and Mexico from 1890 to 1955."

74. Galis, K. W.
Bibliography of West New Guinea. New Haven, Conn., Yale University, South East Asia Studies, 1956. 135 p. $1.50 Together with Kennedy's Bibliography of Indonesian Peoples and Cultures this reproduction of the author's Bibliographie van Nederlands Nieuw-Guinea, Hollandia, 1955, provides the researcher with a complete coverage of the literature from Sabang to Merauke.

75. Japan. Ministry of Education and Science Bureau.
Bibliography of the Humanistic Studies and Social Relations, n. 1, 1952. Tokyo, 1955. 146 p. List of periodical articles in Japanese and English or scientific articles published in Japanese learned periodicals of 1952 in the fields of literature, history, philosophy, and social relations.

76. Klieneberger, H. R., comp.
Bibliography of Oceanic Linguistics. (London Oriental Bibliographies, v. 1). London, Oxford University Press, 1957. 143 p. 45/- "All printed books, periodical articles, and reviews dealing with Oceanic (i.e. Polynesian, Micronesian, Melanesian, and Papuan) languages...includes dictionaries, vocabularies, grammars, and other linguistic contributions, but excludes writings in the individual languages itself," by a former member of the library staff of the School of Oriental and African Studies.

77. König, Franz, ed.
Religionswissenschaftliches Wörterbuch; die Grundbegriffe. Freiburg, Deutschland, Herder, 1956. lxiv p.+ 956 columns. $8.50 Dictionary of fundamental terms of philosophy of religion, psychology of religion, phenomenology of religion, sociology of religion, the history of religion and religious statistics; most of the contributions are by Roman Catholic scholars.

78. London. University. School of Oriental and African Studies.
The Far East and South-East Asia; a Cumulated List of Periodical Articles. May 1955-April 1956. London, 1956. 79 p. Annual, cumulative list made up of the contents of twelve monthly issues, arranged by subject, with an author index and a list of the periodicals indexed.

79. Rommerskirchen, P. Giovanni, O.M.I., and others, comp.
Bibliographia Missionaria, 1956. Roma, Unione Missionaria del Clero in Italia, 1957. 195 p. Twentieth yearly issue of this invaluable Roman Catholic missionary bibliography.

80. United Nations. UNESCO.
World Literacy at Mid-Century; a Statistical Study. (Monographs on Fundamental Education, no. 11) Paris, 1957. 200 p. $2.00 Systematic survey of illiteracy on a world-wide scale; an "attempt to present estimates on the extent of illiteracy in every country and territory of the world."

81. Wilber, Donald N.
Annotated Bibliography of Afghanistan. (Behavior Science Bibliographies). New Haven, Conn., Human Relation Area Files, 1956. 220 p. $5.50 The bibliography is arranged alphabetically under subject-headings and indexed. Afghanistan is defined as the country existing within its present frontiers, the coverage of materials is comprehensive, but not exhaustive.

82. Yuan, Tung-Li, comp.
Economic and Social Development of Modern China: A Bibliographic Guide. (Behavior Science Bibliographies). New Haven, Conn., Human Relation Area Files, 1956. Part 1, 130 p.; Part 2, 87 p. $5.50 A practical guide, not a complete bibliography, to publications on China's economy and social development in the English, French and German languages.

See also: 189.

VI. Areas and Countries: General, Missions, Churches

A. NORTH AMERICA

83. Brown, Ina Corinne.
The Story of the American Negro. 2nd rev. ed. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 212 p. $2.75 New insights have been included based upon research and scholarship since the first edition. The material has been brought up to date including such recent developments as the Supreme Court decision and subsequent events.

84. Densmore, Frances.
Music of Acoma, Isleta, Cochiti and Zûñi Pueblos. (Smithonian Institution, Bureau of American Ethnology, Bulletin, 165). Washington, D.C., Government Printing Office, 1957. 117 p. Analysis of Pueblo songs and music with translations of their texts and short notes.

85. Jenness, Diamond.
Dawn in Arctic Alaska. Minneapolis, University of Minnesota Press, 1957. 222 p. $4.75 Life among Eskimo families as observed by a noted Canadian anthropologist.

86. McReynolds, Edwin C.
The Seminoles. Norman, Okla., University of Oklahoma Press, 1957. 397 p. $5.75 The history of this formidable Indian tribe, their origin, the complex problems concerning their rights in Florida, the history of the military operations against them, their forced removal to the Indian Territory, etc. All makes for a remarkable story of the only Indian tribe that never officially made peace with the U.S.

87. Spencer, Katherine.
Mythology and Values; an Analysis of Navaho Chantway Myths. Philadelphia, American Folklore Society, 1957. 240 p. $2.50 An anthropological analysis of Navaho Chantway myths with the aim of discovering insights into the conception of life and values of the people.

88. Stebbins, Richard P.
The United States in World Affairs, 1956. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 426 p. $6.00 This annual review is a record of America's role in the crucial events of 1956 with the intent to provide essential background for the current international issues.

See also: 7, 20, 37, 52, 68, 193, 263.

B. THE CARIBBEAN ISLANDS AND THE GUIANAS

89. Henle, Fritz and Knapp, P. E.
The Caribbean. N.Y., London, Studio Publications and Crowell, 1957. 207 p. $5.95 Well told story of the Caribbean lands as a running commentary of 250 excellent photographs of which 16 are presented in color. This handsome volume shows the manifold influences which have produced the present ways of life of this still relatively isolated world.

90. McMorris, C. S.
Small-Farm Financing in Jamaica. (Supplement to v.6, n.3, Social and Economic Studies). Jamaica, B.W.I., Institute of Social and Economic Research, 1957. 128 p. Study of the financing of capital requirements by selected groups of small farmers in Jamaica.

91. Steward, Julian H., and others.
The People of Puerto Rico; a Study in Social Anthropology. Urbana, Ill., University of Illinois Press, 1956. 540 p. $10.00 "The study undertook to analyze the contemporary culture and to explain it in terms of the historical changes which have occurred on the island, ...in terms of ecological adaptations of the historically derived patterns to the local geographical environment."

92. Wilson, Ruth Danenhower.
Here Is Haiti. N.Y., Philosophical Library, 1957. 204 p. $3.75 A trained sociologist presents an interesting and informative study of the peculiar mixture of French and African culture in the Negro Republic of Haiti.

See also: 41, 220.

C. LATIN AMERICA

93. Bates, Margaret, ed.
The Migration of Peoples to Latin America. Washington, D.C., Catholic University of America Press, 1957. 113 p. $1.50 Proceedings of the Conference on the Migration of Peoples to Latin America held under the auspices of The Institute of Ibero-American Studies of the Catholic University of America, April 27 and 28, 1956.

94. Blomberg, Rolf.
The Naked Aucas; an Account of the Indians of Ecuador. (Translated from the German by F. H. Lyon). Fair Lawn, N.J., Essential Books, 1957. 191 p. $5.00 Richly illustrated report of an expedition up the river Napo in 1949, and record of information amassed by the author about this savage tribe of Indians.

95. Crow, John A.
Mexico Today. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 336 p. $5.00 A wealth of information for the general reader and prospective visitor with an excellent background of the cultural heritage and achievements of contemporary Mexico.

96. Goslin, Tomas S.
Los Evangelicos en la America Latina. (Siglo xix, Los Comienzos). Buenos Aires, Editorial "La Aurora", 1957. 127 p. History of the Protestant movement in Latin America.

97. Hawthorne, Sally Reese.
Cloud Country Sojourn. Cochambamba, Bolivia, Bolivian Indian Mission, 1957?. 128 p. The missionary work and experience of independent faith missionaries among the Quechua Indians, descendants of the ancient Inca empire, the Aymara Indians and the half-caste people.

98. Keeler, Clyde E.
Land of the Moon-Children; the Primitive San Blas Culture in Flux. Athens, University of Georgia Press, 1956. 207 p. $4.50 A fascinating account of the primitive culture of the Cuna Indians on the San Blas islands off the coast of Panama, the impact Christian missions and education have made and the changes they bring about.

99. Mann, Hans.
South America. N.Y., Crowell, 1957. 241 p. $12.50 241 beautiful pictures in photogravure, five in color, with an introductory essay, twenty-onemaps; notes on the plates are given as a running commentary.

100. Martin, Michael Rheta and Lovett, Gabriel H.
An Encyclopedia of Latin-American History. N.Y., London, Abelard-Schumann, 1956. 392 p. $6.00 Essential information concerning the political, economic and cultural development of the Latin American countries.

See also: 18, 47, 61.

D. EUROPE

101. American Friends Service Committee.
Meeting the Russians: American Quakers Visit the Soviet Union. Philadelphia, American Friends Service Committee, 1956. 94 p. $.35 Six American Quakers who visited the Soviet Union on a "mission of good-will" in June 1955, report their discerning observations and impressions and suggest some ways of better understanding.

102. Deutscher, Isaac.
Russia in Transition and Other Essays. N.Y., Coward-McCann, 1957. 245 p. $4.50 An appraisal of the post-Stalin era; broad historical knowledge and understanding of Soviet affairs in fourteen essays.

103. Fejtö, François.
Behind the Rape of Hungary. Translated from the French by Norbert Guterman. N.Y., McKay, 1957. 335 p. $5.50 Excellent analysis of the history of the Hungarian revolution, the preparation for it in the events of the years 1945-56 which subsequently led up to a far reaching crisis in the history of world-communism.

104. Fernsworth, Lawrence.
Spain's Struggle for Freedom. Boston, Mass., Beacon Press, 1957. 376 p. $6.00 The forces of liberalism and reaction in Spain are shown at work through the centuries.

105. Fischer, Louis.
Russia Revisited. N.Y., Doubleday, 1957. 288 p. $4.00 A famous newspaper correspondent and author, well-versed in the Russian language, paints a vivid and absorbing picture of his recent visit to the Soviet Union and other countries behind the Iron Curtain.

106. Fitzsimmons, Thomas, ed.
RSFSR; Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic. 2 v. (Country Survey Series, v. 5). New Haven, Conn., Human Relations Area Files, 1957. 681 p. $9.75 The survey includes Russian anthropology, economics, international relations, political science and social psychology.

107. Lasky, Melvin J., ed.
The Hungarian Revolution. N.Y., Praeger, 1957. 318 p. $5.00 A White Book of the October uprising as recorded in documents, dispatches, eye-witness accounts, and world-wide reactions.

108. Matthews, Herbert.
The Yoke and the Arrows. N.Y., Brazziler, 1957. 203 p. $3.75 In 1939 Generalissimo Francisco Franco clamped the lid on Spain, but the ferment of revolution continues. From his own intimate knowledge of Spanish history, the Civil War and current events, the brilliant correspondent of the New York Times evaluates the situation today and looks into the future.

109. Unione Christiana Evangelica Battista D'Italia.
Two Significant Developments in the Baptist Evangelical Christian Union of Italy. Rivoli (Turin), Italy, Italian Baptist Theological School, 1957. 12 p. Mimeographed report on the formation of the Baptist Union in Italy together with an urgent request for evangelistic missionaries; background analysis as well as a view of the work to be done.

110. West, Morris L.
Children of the Shadows; the True Story of the Street Urchins of Naples. Garden City, N.Y., Doubleday, 1957. 189 p. $3.00 Moving and challenging tale of homeless children and a padre's attempt to help them by giving them shelter and needed care.

111. Wright, Richard.
Pagan Spain. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 241 p. $4.00 During the course of his visit, Mr. Wright met all classes and types of Spanish people: aristocrats, intellectuals, gypsies, priests, Protestants, clerks, bullfighters, pimps, prostitutes, old and young. It is indeed "a personal report...that is alive with the blood, passion and tragedy of a great country," characteristic of Richard Wright's writing.

See also: 49, 149, 190, 251, 263.

E. AFRICA (SOUTH OF THE SAHARA)

112. Banton, Michael.
West African City; A Study of Tribal Life in Freetown. London, Oxford University Press, 1957. 228 p. $5.60 A sociological study of the effects of rapid urbanization of a West Africa city caused by large-scale emigration of tribal people from rural areas. Published for the International African Institute, it contains 47 tables and several maps.

113. Beater, B. E.
Soils of the Sugar Belt. Part 1: Natal North Coast. (Natal Regional Survey; Report no. 3). Cape Town, London, N.Y., Oxford University Press, 1957. 103 p. 35/- Information on the physical and chemical characteristics of Natal soil series and types, and an appended strip map of soil groups and sub-groups.

114. Brennecke, Gerhard.
Brüder im Schatten; das Bild einer Missionsreise durch Südafrika. Berlin, Evangelische Verlagsanstalt, 1956. 359 p. DM 8.20 Report of a missionary journey through South Africa by the director of the Berlin Missions Society.

115. Church, R. J. Harrison.
West Africa; A Study of the Environment and Man's Use of It. London, Longmans, Green, 1957. 547 p. 45/- A comprehensive study of British, French, Portuguese and Spanish West Africa, and of Liberia. Detailed information is given on geography, geology, climate, agriculture, industry and transportation, and population distribution. Illustrated by many maps and photographs.

116. Collister, P. and Vere-Hodge, E.
Pioneers of East Africa. Nairobi, East Africa, Eagle Press, 1956. 131 p. 4/2 The story of Speke and other pioneers and their contribution to our knowledge of East Africa; illustrations, maps, and a chronology of important dates.

117. Conference of Representatives of the University of Cape Town and the University of Witwatersrand.
The Open Universities in South Africa. Johannesburg, S.A., Witwatersrand University Press, 1957. 47 p. 5/- Statement on the value of the open university in South Africa, produced by the conference of Representatives of the University of Cape Town and the University of Witwatersrand, January 1957.

118. Congo Inland Mission.
Constitution and Guiding Principles. Chicago, 1957. 36 p. Concise statement about the organization and principles of this mission, also an informative chart showing the geographical locations of mission stations and some statistics.

119. Edel, May Mandelbaum.
The Chiga of Western Uganda. Toronto, N.Y., Oxford University Press, 1957. 200 p. 35/- Full account of the social system, indigenous legal procedures, domestic and economic life as well as religious beliefs of a Bantu tribe of Western Uganda, based upon a field study by the author which was carried out in 1933.

120. Hunton, W. Alphaeus.
Decision in Africa; Sources of Current Conflict. N.Y., International Publishers, 1957. 255 p. $4.00 Present-day social, economic and political conditions in all of Africa are presented with a great amount of informative facts and figures, but in an emotional atmosphere. Strongly challenges colonial imperialism, economic exploitation and racial prejudice.

121. Hurwitz, N.
Agriculture in Natal 1860-1950. (Natal Regional Survey, v. 12). Capetown, Oxford University Press, 1957. 123 p. 32/6 A technical work on the agriculture of this province of the Union of South Africa, containing many tables, maps and diagrams.

122. Keet, B. B.
The Ethics of Apartheid. Johannesburg, S.A., Institute of Race Relations, 1957. 19 p. Hoernlé Memorial Lecture by the professor of theology at the Dutch Reformed Church Seminary, Stellenbosch; author of Whither South Africa?

123. Laman, Karl.
Kongo, II. (Studia Ethnographica Upsaliensa, v. 8). Uppsala, Sweden, Almquist & Wiksells, 1957. 164 p. $14.00 This is the second part of the late missionary Karl Laman's ethnographic study of the Congo, dealing with family and social organizations, sickness, death, civil law and penal code; excellently illustrated with fine drawings and beautiful color plates.

124. Palmer, Mabel.
The History of the Indians in Natal. (Natal Regional Survey, v. 10). Cape Town, Oxford University Press, 1957. 197 p. 37/6 An analysis of legislation which has affected Indians; the Indian political organization; also Gandhi's role and influence and the development of education are discussed.

125. Pankhurst, E. Sylvia.
Ethiopia; a Cultural History. Woodford Green, England, Lalibela House, 1955. 747 p. 37/6 Survey of Ethiopian arts and culture, beautifully illustrated, presenting both, historical aspects and present day developments; the book serves as such also as an introduction to the real life of the Ethiopian people today.

126. Reich, Hanns.
Portrait of Southern Africa. London, Collins, 1956. 95 p. $7.50 An exceptionally beautiful book of photographs showing contrasts in the landscapes of South Africa as well as contrasts between life in the industrial cities and the simplicity of the Bantu peoples in their primitive surroundings.

127. Ringwald, Walter.
Stafette in Afrika; der Weg einer Jungen Kirche in Ghana. Stuttgart, Deutschland, Evangelischer Missionsverlag, 1957. 92 p. DM 2.80 History and development of the young Church in Ghana.

128. Robertson, Hector Menteith.
South Africa; Economic and Political Aspects. Durham, N.Car., Duke University Press, 1957. 192 p. $3.50 The historical background of Negro-white relations in South Africa, their economic causes and consequences, and political factors involved, presented in three lectures, with a comprehensive glossary and bibliography.

129. Sampson, Anthony.
Drum; the Newspaper that Won the Heart of Africa. Cambridge, Mass., Houghton Mifflin, 1957. 256 p. $3.50 The story of Africa's first paper written for and by Africans told by its white editor.

130. South African Institute of Race Relations.
Bechuanaland; a General Survey. Johannesburg, 1957. 36 p. 3/- Concise and highly informative survey on all general topics related to the Protectorate.

131. Stuart, Mary.
Land of Promise; a Story of the Church in Uganda. London, Highway, 1957. 110 p. 4/6 The wife of the former Bishop of Uganda tells of the country and the people in which she and her husband served for more than twenty years.

132. University of Natal.
Agriculture in Natal; Recent Developments. (Natal Regional Survey, v. 13). Cape Town, S.A., Oxford University Press, 1957. 205 p. 45/- A symposium on subjects like climate, soil, vegetation, etc. by various experts, aiming--with the other volumes of the series--at an accurate and comprehensive picture of the economic and social structure of the province.

133. Walker, Eric A.
A History of Southern Africa. 3rd ed. London, Longmans, Green, 1957. 973 p. 60/- A revised and enlarged edition of "A History of South Africa" the book includes now also territories north of the Union in its presentation and a more detailed history of the two Rhodesias and Nyasaland; an attempt is made to give both sides of the apartheid controversy.

See also: 19, 21, 23, 29, 32, 33, 38, 50, 63, 64, 224, 225.

F. NEAR EAST, MIDDLE EAST AND NORTH AFRICA

134. Ayache, Albert.
Le Maroc; Bilan d'une Colonisation. (La Culture et Les Hommes). Paris, Éditions Sociales, 1956. 367 p. FFr. 850 Based on numerous documents and a personal knowledge of the country, this survey of Moroccan history and people includes the forty-four years of the French Protectorate, and an analysis of recent events. The author discusses all aspects of the country's life: economy, production, history, demography, and politics.

135. Baly, Denis.
Multitudes in the Valley; Church and Crisis in the Middle East. Greenwich, Conn., Seabury, 1957. 307 p. $5.00 Analysis of the three main groups--Jews, Arabs, and Westerners; the religious and political backgrounds of their thinking; the challenge to the Church by Islamic absolutism, scientific humanism, nationalism, and communism; and the difficulties in meeting these challenges.

136. Beatty, Ilene.
Arab and Jew in the Land of Canaan. Chicago, Regnery, 1957. 108 p. $2.50 Inquiry into the inner connection of Biblical Palestine and modern Israel, the rights and duties of both Arabs and Jews, and a challenging solution to the problem that faces the world today.

137. Bethmann, Erich W.
Decisive Years in Palestine, 1918-1948. (Minaret Series, n. 13). N.Y., American Friends of the Middle East, 1957. 55 p. $.25 A concise and penetrating review of the major events and issues of thirty important years in the formation of modern Israel.

138. Bloomfield, L. M.
Egypt, Israel and the Gulf of Aqaba. Toronto, Carswell, 1957. 240 p. $5.00 Analysis of some world problems which developed when an attempt was made to transform an international waterway into a closed sea.

139. Ellis, Harry B.
Israel and the Middle East. N.Y., Ronald, 1957. 260 p. $4.00 An investigation into the unsolved problems of the Israeli-Arab feud by the distinguished Middle East correspondent of The Christian Science Monitor, giving the necessary background as well as an impartial account of the present deadlock.

140. Frank, Waldo.
Bridgehead; the Drama of Israel. N.Y., Brazziler, 1957. 220 p. $3.75 A warm-hearted and well-written book about Israel's direct relation to world Jewry.

141. Harris, George L., ed.
Egypt. (Country Survey Series). New Haven, Conn., Human Relations Area Files, 1957. 370 p. $8.00 Analysis of the dominant sociological, political, and economic aspects of Egyptian society today.

142. Hitti, Philip K.
Lebanon in History; From the Earliest Times to the Present. London, Macmillan, 1957. 548 p. 42/- The history of man in one of the smallest but nevertheless most significant countries of the world, known now as the Republic of Lebanon.

143. Iranian Information Center.
Iran Today. N.Y., 1957. 70 p. Well illustrated pamphlet with up-to-date information and statistics on this important country of the Middle East.

144. Lippens, Philippe.
Expédition en Arabie Centrale. Paris, Adrien-Maisonneuve, 1956. 214 p. $7.00 Travelogue of a four-month archaeological expedition in hitherto unknown areas of Central Arabia. This was the first such expedition to receive the official sanction of the Wahabite government and the personal approb ation of 'Abdul-'Aziz ibn Sa'oud.

145. NCCC-U.S.A. Division of Foreign Missions. Committee for the Near East.
The Outreach in the Near East. N.Y., 1957. 19 p. A brief survey of the Protestant missions in the Near East and an analysis of problems and trends.

146. Polk, William R.; Stamler, David M., and Asfour, Edmund.
Backdrop to Tragedy; the Struggle for Palestine. Boston, Mass., Beacon Press, 1957. 399 p. $4.95 "The History of the Struggle for Palestine" is written jointly by the three authors; "Zionism and the Jewish Interests in Palestine" by a scholar of modern Hebrew literature; "The Arabs in Palestine" by a specialist in Middle Eastern affairs; and "The Economic Framework of the Palestine Problem" by a Palestinian Arab.

147. Stewart, Desmond, and Haylock, John.
New Babylon; a Portrait of Iraq. London, Collins, 1956. 255 p. 16/- A potpourri of experiences, insights, and curious incidents described by two men who lived in Iraq for seven years. This book presents the everyday life of modern Iraq: progressive yet superstitious, dignified yet confused, beautiful yet pretentious, but above all, vital and charming.

148. Shah, Idries.
Destination Mecca. London, Rider, 1957. 192 p. 1/1/2 Interesting portrait of one of the key areas of our times in the form of a travelogue, leading the reader across the Arab world from Tangier to Kabul.

149. Teller, Judd L.
The Kremlin, the Jews, and the Middle East. N.Y., Yoseloff, 1957. 202 p. $3.75 Story of the Soviet Union's campaign against the Jews and of its political maneuvers in recent affairs of the Middle East.

150. Utley, Freda.
Will the Middle East Go West? Chicago, Regnery, 1957. 198 p. $3.00 The author sees a parallel in the present-day development of the political situation with that in China, she condemns "yesterday's liberals" as severely as "today's conservatives" and gives full endorsement to the Eisenhower plan.

151. Witkamp, F. Th.
The Refugee Problem in the Middle East. In: R.E.M.P. Bulletin, v.5, n.1. (Translated from the Dutch by R. Wentholt.) The Hague, The Netherlands, Research Group for European Migration Problems, Jan.-March 1957. 51 p. "This study consists of a description of the causes of the flight of the Palestine Refugees and of the flight itself, followed by the situation as it is, attempting to suggest possible solutions to the dilemma."

See also: 69, 230, 233.

G. CENTRAL ASIA

152. Nebesky-Wykowitz, René von.
Where the Gods Are Mountains; Three Years Among the People of the Himalayas. Translated from the German by Michael Bullock. N.Y., Reynal, 1957. 256 p. $4.75 Account of three years spent in studying the legends, customs and religious traditions of Himalayan peoples, by a noted Austrian anthropologist.

153. Poucha, Pavel.
Die geheime Geschichte der Mongolen als Geschichtsquelle und Literaturdenkmal. Prag, Tschechoslovakische Akademie, 1956. 247 p. Kcs. 23.10 A scholarly contribution to the explanation of the "Secret History of the Mongols," the fundamental work on ancient Mongol history. It is seen here as an historical force and as a literary monument.

154. Sis, Vladimir and Vanis, Josef.
On the Road Through Tibet. Translated from the Czech by Iris Urwin. London, Spring Books, 1957. 51 p. + 224 plates. $9.95 Sixty-four full-color and 160 monochrome photographs illustrate superbly the short and pointed text of this unusual and highly informative travelogue.

155. Thiel, Erich.
The Soviet Far East; a Survey of its Physical and Economic Geography. London, Methuen, 1957. 388 p. 35/- A comprehensive study of the Soviet Union between Lake Baikal and the Pacific, by an eminent geographer who has traveled extensively in this area. Maps and charts.

See also: 39, 40, 81.

H. SOUTHERN ASIA

156. Carstairs, G. Morris.
The Twice-Born; a Study of a Community of High-Caste Hindus. London, Hogarth, 1957. 343 p. 30/- Psychological and socio-anthropological analysis of the essential difference between Hindu and European mentality and of Hindu personality formation; based on case studies.

157. Cohen, Maurice.
Thunder Over Kashmir. Calcutta, Orient Longmans, 1955. 118 p. Rs 9/- Eye-witness story of the military operations in Kashmir between Indian and Pakistani troops, by an officer of the Indian army.

158. Gensichen, Hans-Werner.
Die Kirche von Südindien. (Weltmission heute, Nr. 5/6). Stuttgart, Deutschland, Evangelischer Missionsverlag, 1957. 64 p. DM 2.40 A vivid account of the union of churches in South India.

159. Henschen, Ernst.
Inder im Aufbruch. Breklum, Deutschland, Jensen, 1956. 44 p. DM 1.00 A brief pamphlet on India today with special emphasis on what this "new India on the march" means for Christianity and Christian missions.

160. Husain, A. F. A.
Human and Social Impact of Technological Change in Pakistan. 2 v. Dacca, Pakistan, Geoffrey Cumberledge, Oxford University Press, 1956. 404 + 344 p. $2.65 each "A report on a survey conducted by the University of Dacca." The second volume of case studies serves as a supplement to the research on social and economic effects of technological change in Pakistan.

161. Karim, A. K. Nazmul.
Changing Society in India and Pakistan. Dacca, Pakistan, Oxford University Press, 1956. 173 p. $1.50 A historical study of the impact of British rule on the social structure of India and Pakistan especially the Muslim system, in both urban and rural areas.

162. Komisi Pekabaran Indjil D.G.I.
Geredja[2] Asia Timur bertemu di Prapat, 1957. Djakarta, Badan Penerbit Kristen, 1957. 59 p. Report on East Asia Christian Conference: Prapat, March 17-26, 1957.

163. Levai, Blaise, ed.
Revolution in Missions. Vellore, South India, Popular Press, 1957. 303 p. $1.00 A symposium which attempts to explore frankly new solutions to the problems confronting missions in India today.

164. Majumdar, R. C., ed.
The Struggle For Empire. (The History and Culture of the Indian People, v. 5). Bombay, Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, 1957. 940 p. + 62 plates. $10.00 This excellent volume of Indian history covers roughly the transition period that marks the end of independent Hindu rule, from 1000 to 1300 A.D.; with specially detailed chapters on art, religion and philosophy. Profusely illustrated with text-figures, maps and plates.

165. Menon, V. P.
The Transfer of Power in India. Princeton, N.J., Princeton University Press, 1957. 543 p. $8.50 Account of the events leading up to the partition of India; the author, a prominent government official during this period, was an eye-witness.

166. Moreland, W. H. and Chatterjee, Atul Chandra.
A Short History of India. 4th ed. London, Longmans, Green, 1957. 594 p. 30/- Fourth edition of a scholarly, standard work on the history and civilization of India from earliest times to the partition and transfer of power in 1947.

167. Morrison, Hedda.
Sarawak. London, Macgibbon & Kee, 1957. 288 p. 3/3/- A very personal record of what the author, the wife of an official in Sarawak, has seen and photographed during eight years of living in this diverse and interesting country. The excellent photographs are supplemented by text and captions.

168. National Christian Council of India.
The Urban Community and the Urban Church. Nagpur, India, 1957. 80 p. The report of an exploratory consultation on the above theme and on some social goals of urban community development, by various scholars.

169. Qureshi, Ishtiaq Husain.
The Pakistani Way of Life. rev. ed. N.Y., Praeger, 1956. 83 p. $4.00 The general information on the ten year old nation has been brought up to date in this second edition and an account is given of the new constitution and of the events leading up to its enactment.

170. Plattner, F. A. and Moosbrugger, B.
Christian India. Translated from the German by Mollie Seton-Karr. N.Y., Vanguard, 1957. 147 p. $12.50 Through text and magnificent photographs the authors seek to present the different characteristics of the three religious and cultural groups of Indian Christians: the Church of the Syro-Malabars or Thomas Christians, Roman Catholic missions, and the Protestant missionary movement.

See also: 8, 12, 15, 25, 26, 28, 31, 35, 36, 59, 72.

I. SOUTH EAST ASIA

171. Cadière, Léopold.
Croyances et pratiques religieuses des Viêtnamiens. Paris, Ecole Francaise d'Extreme-Orient, 1957. 286 p. The beliefs and religious practices of the Vietnamese by a member of the "Société des Missions Etrangères de Paris," with a short sketch of the author's life and travels.

172. De Poncins, Gontran.
From a Chinese City. Translated from the French. Garden City, N.Y., Doubleday, 1957. 256 p. $5.00 The story of present day Cholon, Indo China in which 600,000 Chinese residents were preserving aspects of true Chinese life and culture before the civil war put an end to it in 1955.

173. Hagen, Everett E.
The Economic Development of Burma. (Planning Pamphlets, n. 6). Washington, D.C., National Planning Association, 1956. 88 p. $1.25 Study of Burma's economic development, problems, and prospects.

174. Healey, Francis G.
Malaya; What of the Church? rev. ed. London, Edinburgh House, 195?. 27 p. 1/6 Brief description of the situation facing the Church in Malaya; the revision of this edition was made by John Fleming.

175. Ormeling, F. J.
The Timor Problem. Djakarta, Wolters-Groningen, 1957. 284 p. 30/- A geographical, economic and ethnological study of Indonesian Timor, "an underdeveloped island." Valuable scientific research; good bibliography and glossary.

176. Parkinson, C. Northcote.
A Short History of Malaya. rev. and enlarged ed. Singapore, Moore, 1956. 46 p. $1.00 A concise and helpful pamphlet for ready information on the background of Malayan history as well as more recent developments.

177. Rau, Santha Rama.
View to the Southeast. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 240 p. $3.50 A delightfully written travelogue describing lands of Southeast Asia and opening windows into the life of its peoples. The author is an Indian woman, educated in England and the United States, and already well-known for her books and articles.

178. Skinner, William G.
Chinese Society in Thailand: An Analytical History. Ithaca, N.Y., Cornell University Press, 1957. 459 p. $6.50 Diachronic inquiry into the "Chinese Problem" of Thailand oriented to the objectives of social sciences, with a final chapter on the contemporary Chinese society in Thailand.

179. Steinberg, David J. and others.
Cambodia; Its People Its Society Its Culture. (Country Survey Series). New Haven, Conn., Human Relations Area Files, 1957. 345 p. $7.75 Excellent survey with the essential statistical materials and useful bibliography.

180. Sundstrom, Harold W.
Indonesia: Its People and Politics. Tokyo, Hokuseido Press, 1957. 197 p. Paper-back book; examination of class structure, political parties and contemporary nationalism in Indonesia; by an American scholar now in the Far East.

181. Tinker, Hugh.
The Union of Burma. London, N.Y., Oxford University Press, 1957. 424 p. 42/- Historical background of modern Burma, political and social changes since 1947, problems faced by the new nation; "the first comprehensive study since independence," by a recognized scholar, with a great deal of previously unpublished material.

182. U Nu.
The People Win Through. N.Y., Taplinger, 1957. 184 p. $3.75 A drama written by the talented Premier of Burma about the revolutionary struggle going on in his country; strongly anti-Communist. Valuable biographical introduction by Edward Hunter.

See also: 71, 78, 171, 187, 252.

J. EAST ASIA

183. Abegg, Lily.
Im Neuen China. Zürich, Schweiz, Atlantis Verlag, 1957. 285 p. $3.70 A very interesting account of a Swiss journalist's experiences and insights during a recent visit to Communist China, which tries to capture the general mood and socio-political climate today as well as the importance of the industrial revolution which China is undergoing.

184. Adler, Solomon.
The Chinese Economy. N.Y., Monthly Review Press, 1957. 276 p. $5.50 A scholarly and important analysis of China's present economic and industrial development, by a trained economist with past experience in China. Rather favorable to the Communist regime.

185. Battistini, Lawrence H.
The Postwar Student Struggle in Japan. Tokyo; Rutland, Vt., Tuttle, 1957. 167 p. $2.50 This valuable Gotham Foundation study, based on extensive research in Japan, throws much light on the student mind and student activities in post-war Japan, including the Communist influence.

186. Borton, Hugh and others.
Japan Between East and West. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 327 p. $4.75 An excellent portrayal of the present over-all situation in Japan by six recognized authorities in the fields of politics, economics, foreign relations and literature, with emphasis on Japan's position between the Western bloc and the Communist powers of Russia and China.

187. Caldwell, John C.
South of Tokyo. Chicago, Regnery, 1957. 160 p. $3.50 The political situation in countries south of Tokyo from Formosa to Burma is described, with emphasis on Chinese Communist influence in these places. The author is strongly partisan and pro-Nationalist China.

188. Chang, Chi-Yun.
A Life of Confucius. Translated from the Chinese by Shih Chao-Yin. Taipei, Taiwan, China News Press, 1957. 113 p. An uncritical biography of the Chinese sage, written for publicity purposes by the National Government on Taiwan.

189. Chao, Kuo-Chün.
Agrarian Policies of Mainland China: A Documentary Study (1949-1956). Cambridge, Mass., Harvard University Press, 1957. 276 p. $3.75 This bibliographic study is conceived as a "step toward a fuller understanding of the vast agrarian developments which have taken place in China."

190. Cheng, Tien-fang.
A History of Sino-Russian Relations. Washington, D.C., Public Affairs Press, 1957. 389 p. $6.00
A documented history of China's relations with her giant neighbor Russia, from the 13th century to the present. The author, former Minister of Education in China writes from a Nationalist and strongly anti-Russian point of view. Introduction by the former American ambassador, Dr. John Leighton Stuart.

191. Chiang, Kai-shek.
Selected Speeches and Messages in 1956. N.Y., Chinese News Service, 1957. 94 p. Twenty-two messages and sets of replies to questions submitted by newspaper correspondents of Nationalist China; strongly anti-Communist.

192. Cogswell, James A.
Until the Day Dawn. Nashville, Tenn., Presbyterian Church in the U.S., Board of World Missions, 1957. 226 p. $2.00 An excellent brief history of the Church in Japan, with special reference to the work of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.) of which the author is a missionary.

193. Dinwiddie, Joseph.
Aid to Nationalist China. N.Y., Vantage, 1957. 177 p. $2.95 An attack on the post-war diplomacy of co-existence, regards the U.N. as a tool of Russia and advocates a new organization of free nations which--through non-war methods--will eventually conquer the Communist colossus.

194. Fairbank, John K., ed.
Chinese Thought and Institutions. Chicago, University of Chicago Press, 1957. 438 p. $8.50
A meaty book for Sinologists and students of "intellectual history." Nine American and four Chinese scholars contribute papers on the role of ideas and interplay between ideas and institutions in selected periods and phases of China's long history. The study throws considerable light also on developments in the twentieth century.

195. Friends, Society of. British Quaker Mission to China.
Quakers Visit China. London, Friends House, 1956. 73 p. 3/- The first visit from a western Christian group to the new Communist-led China; impressions and insights of a British Quaker group. Hopeful aspects of Church life are described.

196. Gluckstein, Ygael.
Mao's China; Economic and Political Survey. Boston, Beacon Press, 1957. 458 p. $8.50 An authority on Communist literature writes this critical study of China today: the agrarian reform and the countryside, the towns under Mao, the bureaucratic state and Chinese-Russian relations which are "Rent with contradictions". He believes China will be "the strongest and most impregnable citadel of Stalinism" for another generation.

197. Guillain, Robert.
600 Million Chinese. N.Y., Criterion, 1957. 310 p. $5.00 The brilliant French reporter writes a thoroughly objective story of his recent visit to Communist China. The achievements and power of the new regime are recognized but the dominant fact, to the author, is mass regimentation.

198. Hamilton, Horace Ernst.
China Two Generations Ago. Denver, Colo., Bigmountain Press, 1957. 102 p. $2.75 The son of a medical missionary, now professor at Columbia University, writes a nostalgic account of his parents' life in North China (1904-1927) and of his own boyhood experiences.

199. Houn, Franklin W.
Central Government of China 1912-1928. Madison, University of Wisconsin Press, 1957. 246 p. $4.50
A study of the turbulent period of warlord rule and civil wars in China from the establishment of the Republic to the National Government in 1928, the various political structures and institutions; and an assessment of reasons for failure of democracy. Careful research by a Chinese scholar.

200. James, Alfred Francis.
Reports on Deputation of Australian Churchmen to Mainland China. N.Y., NCCC-U.S.A., Division of Foreign Missions, 1957. 23 p. $.40 This reprint of eight articles in one booklet constitutes one of the most important first-hand reports of the Church in Communist China which has yet appeared. Illustrated with photographs.

201. Japan Travel Bureau. Editor and Publisher.
The Japanese Woman; A Pictorial. Tokyo, Japan Travel Bureau, 1957. 116 p. $2.75 A rather idealistic portrayal of the life of Japanese women today, but informative as to their many roles in daily life.

202. Keene, Donald, comp. and ed.
Modern Japanese Literature. N.Y., Grove, 1956. 440 p. $4.75 Literature of the past eighty years, most of which has not appeared before in English, is contained in this well edited anthology. Diary, drama, short stories, and poetry are included.

203. Kinmond, William.
No Dogs in China; A Report on China Today. N.Y., Nelson, 1957. 211 p. $4.95 A correspondent of the Toronto Globe and Mail writes this observant report on his recent visit to Communist China; interesting facts and experiences are described in most readable and at times humorous style. One chapter is on "The Christian Church."

204. Li, Chi.
The Beginnings of Chinese Civilization. Seattle, University of Washington Press, 1957. 123 p. $6.50
The monumental archaeological excavations at Anyong, China (1928-1937) and the light they throw on early Chinese civilization; a scholarly work by the director of excavations, now a professor at National Taiwan University. Valuable plates, illustrations and charts.

205. Owens, Donald.
Challenge in Korea. Kansas City, Mo., Beacon Hill, 1957. 95 p. $1.00 A reading book about the recent history of the Church of the Nazarene in Korea, especially the story of the pioneer Robert Chung.

206. Pearson, B. H.
The Head-Hunter's Bride. Los Angeles, Cowman Publications, 1951. 223 p. $2.25 An exciting novel, based on historical research, about the mountain tribes of Formosa in the years of Japanese rule and the beginnings of Christianity among the "head-hunters."

207. Rickett, Allyn and Adele.
Prisoners of Liberation. N.Y., Cameron Associates, 1957. 288 p. $4.75 Two Fullbright scholars, arrested in Peking in 1951 on charges of espionage, tell of their four years in Chinese Communist prisons, and the extraordinary changes that took place in their thinking and outlook; a strange and disturbing document.

208. Sovik, Ruth and others.
Mission in Formosa and Hongkong. Minneapolis, Minn., Augsburg, 1957. 47 p. $1.25 "Studies in the beginning and development of the indigenous Lutheran Church in Formosa and Hongkong."

209. Stevens, Dorothy A.
Voices from Japan; Christians Speak. Philadelphia, Judson, 1957. 93 p. $1.00 Vital accounts of the Baptist program as it is carried out in Japan told by Japanese Christians who are the spiritual leaders in their congregations.

210. Takenaka, Masao.
Reconciliation and Renewal in Japan. N.Y., Student Volunteer Movement and Friendship Press, 1957. 95 p. $1.00 A concise, factual, but highly readable presentation of the relationship of Christianity to Japanese life and culture, with penetrating analyses of the historical roots of the encounter. The author is a highly respected young Japanese scholar and seminary professor.

211. Tang, Peter S. H.
Communist China Today. N.Y., Praeger, 1957. 536 p. $10.00 An encyclopaedic treatise by a Chinese historical scholar dealing with the history and political structure of Communist China, its personalities, policies and possible future development. A notable contribution to the growing body of literature in this field.

212. Whitehorn, John and Band, Edward.
He Led Them On. London, British and Foreign Bible Society, 1955. 34 p. Booklet; the story of the Christian movement among the Paiwan Tribe of Formosa; photographs and maps.

213. Williams, Philip.
Journey Into Mission. N.Y., Friendship Press, 1957. 180 p. $1.25 An unusually fine little book, by a young missionary of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. Journal of the first term in Japan, with thoughtful and provocative reflections upon experiences and friendships there.

214. Wittfogel, Karl A.
Oriental Despotism; a Comparative Study of Total Power. New Haven, Conn., Yale University Press, 1957. 556 p. $7.50 In this monumental study Dr. Wittfogel traces the history of Oriental despotism based upon "hydraulic society", in which the state controlled watercourses and irrigation, to its present manifestation in the Communist dictatorship over China. He shows the danger to the world of "bureaucratic state slavery" whether in the Soviet Union, China or any other area.

215. Yanagida, Kunio, comp. and ed.
Japanese Manners and Customs in the Meiji Era. Translated from the Japanese and adapted by Charles S. Terry. (Centenary Cultural Council Series). Tokyo, Obunsha, 1957. 335 p. $5.00 The fourth volume that has been translated into English of the important series on Cultural History of the Meiji Era, (1868-1912). This volume is a smooth and readable translation, adapted for use by both Japanologists and the general reader.

See also: 1, 3, 15, 16, 27, 30, 34, 39, 40, 70, 75, 78, 82, 242, 253.

K. PACIFIC ISLANDS

216. Ruhen, Olaf.
Land of Dahori. Philadelphia, Lippincott, 1957. 278 p. $3.75 These "Tales of New Guinea", based upon first-hand experience, let the primitive natives of a strange island appear as real people with mystic ways, peculiar laws and rites.

217. Schoenberger, Nathalene and Bonderud, Omar, ed.
Report From New Guinea; Glimpses of the Work in Lutheran Mission New Guinea from Letters Written by Missionaries There. Columbus, Ohio, Wartburg, 1957. 48 p. "This little booklet is a first-hand report from New Guinea designed to give the reader an intimate glimpse into the everyday life and work of the missionary;" the material and the many illustrations appeared also in the "Lutheran Youth."

218. Villaret, Bernard.
Archipels Polynesiens. Paris, Hachette, 1956. 270 p. Fr. 995 Fascinating description of the Polynésian Islands, well illustrated with an eye for their peculiar charm and beauty.

L. AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

219. Chaseling, Wilbur S.
Yulengor; Nomades of Arnhem Land. London, Epworth Press (Fair Lawn, N.J., Essential Books), 1957. 173 p. $3.80 The story of a strange and diminishing aboriginal people, their ways of life as experienced by the author, their fascinating customs and mindteasing sayings.

220. Kübler-Süterlin, Otto.
Kolumbus Australiens, das Wagnis des Pedro Fernandez de Quiros. Freiburg, Deutschland, Alber, 1956. 346 p. DM 16.80 The story of the Portuguese seaman in Spanish services who went out to find the Australian continent at the turn of the 16th to the 17th century, though--like Columbus--he actually entered only some islands and not the continent; he nevertheless should be considered the discoverer of Australia.

M. GENERAL

221. Aubert de la Rüe, Edgar, and others.
The Tropics. N.Y., Knopf, 1957. 208 p. $12.50 The beautiful book opens up to the reader, with eighty photogravure plates, sixteen color plates, thirty-four color photographs and many text illustrations, the almost incredible richness of tropical life.

222. Hürlimann, Martin.
Asia. N.Y., Crowell, 1957. 262 p. $12.50 289 pictures in photogravure, four color plates, an introductory essay and historical notes on the plates make this a very handsome volume.

223. Yohannan, John D., ed.
A Treasury of Asian Literature. N.Y., Day, 1956. 487 p. $7.50 Prose, poetry and scriptures of the great cultures and religions of the Middle and Far East.

VII. Christianity and Non-Christian Religions, Other Ideologies

A. RELIGIONS OF PRIMITIVE PEOPLES

224. Richards, Audrey I.
Chisungu; a Girl's Initiation Ceremony Among the Bemba of Northern Rhodesia. London, Faber and Faber, 1957. 224 p. 42/- Description of initiation ceremonies and a discussion of the possible relation between puberty rites for girls and a matrilineal organization of society of the Bemba type, also an analysis of the multiple values associated with particular rites, songs and pottery figurines.

225. Wilson, Monica.
Rituals of Kinship Among the Nyakyusa. London, N.Y., Toronto, Oxford University Press, 1957. 278 p. 35/- A description of the rituals celebrated by groups of kinsmen on the occasion of births, marriages and deaths.

See also: 98, 119, 219.

B. THE GREAT NON-CHRISTIAN RELIGIONS

226. Browne, Lawrence E.
The Quickening Word; a Theological Answer to the Challenge of Islam. Cambridge, England, Heffer, 1955. 110 p. 10/6 An attempt to understand the Christian and the Muslim faiths in terms of those who framed the fundamental creeds and also to express the newly rediscovered faith of contemporary Islam in a language which can be understood today.

227. Burtt, E. A., ed.
The Teachings of the Compassionate Buddha. (Mentor Book). N.Y., The New American Library of World Literature, 1955. 247 p. $.35 Included are translations of early discourses, the Dhammapada, and later basic writings, as well as a general introduction and notes by the editor.

228. Chang, Carsun.
The Development of Neo-Confucien Thought. N.Y., Bookman Associates, 1957. 376 p. $7.50
A solid treatise by a modern Chinese scholar, describing the Confucian movement which dominated philosophy and social thought in China from the eighth to the nineteenth century, and its great literary figures. There is a chapter on the stimulus received from Buddhism.

229. Diehl, Carl Gustav.
Instrument and Purpose; Studies on Rites and Rituals in South India. Lund, Sweden, Gleerup, 1956. 393 p. Sw.Cr. 30 Rites and rituals as used in popular Hinduism, a survey to find their use as instruments and whether they serve a purpose.

230. Frye, Richard, ed.
Islam and the West; Proceedings of the Harvard Summer School Conference on the Middle East, July 25-27, 1955. 'S-Gravenhage, Netherlands, Mouton, 1957. 215 p. $4.50 The conference centered its attention on Egypt, Pakistan, Iran, and Turkey, feeling that these four countries represent the whole of the world of Islam. It sought to discover whether there is now or may soon be a renaissance in the Islamic world. The participants recognized that one must first look at such questions as nationalism, Westernization, and "the condition of Islam as a religion and way of life, before he can even ask whether a 'renaissance' is possible, desirable, or relevant."

231. Iwai, Timothy Sukehiko.
Kabir: Hindu Mystic. Tokyo, St. Paul's University, 1957. 22 p. Paper on the life, orientation, and unique religious position of the famous Indian mystic.

232. Levy, Paul.
Buddhism: a 'Mystery Religion'? (Jordan Lectures in Comparative Religion, 1953, v. 3). London, University of London, The Athlone Press, 1957. 111 p. $4.00 Based on lectures given at the University of London, School of Oriental and African Studies, the parallelism of myth and of ritual is shown in this excellent study. The initiatory aspects of the earliest phase of Buddhism are given special attention over against the usual conception of mythical origin.

233. Morris, James.
Islam Inflamed; a Middle East Picture. N.Y., Pantheon, 1957. 326 p. $5.00 Picture of the Moslem Middle East in the crisis of the Suez incident of 1956, the complex and complicated political patterns involved, as well as an attempted understanding of the Middle East peoples and their countries.

234. Radhakrishnan, Sarvepalli and Moore, Charles A., ed.
A Source Book in Indian Philosophy. Princeton, N.J., Princeton University Press, 1957. 684 p. $5.00 Grouped under the main five periods, (the Vedic and the epic periods, the heterodox and the orthodox systems, and contemporary thought) this volume makes available to the Western reader in a comprehensive set of texts the wealth of more than three thousand years of Indian philosophical and religious thought.

235. Rijckenborgh, J. Van.
Light Over Tibet. Haarlem, Netherlands, Rozekruispers, 1956. 42 p. $1.25 English translation of a strange Dutch book published in 1951, depicting Lamaism as a malevolent impulse from the "Roof of the World" in conflict with the spiritual force of the "Joharrine Brotherhood".

236. Sangharakshita, Bhikshu.
A Survey of Buddhism. Basavangudi, Bangalore, India, The Indian Institute of World Culture, 1957. 500 p. $4.50 A historical view of the great world religion and its various schools, as well as a presentation of the doctrine of perfectability of man and the achievement of enlightenment.

237. Smith, Wilfred Cantwell.
Islam in Modern History. Princeton, N.J., Princeton University Press, 1957. 317 p. $6.00 An attempt to show how closely religion is related to contemporary problems in the Islamic world; a critical and sympathetic investigation of the present day crisis and the need for revaluation and renascence in Islam.

238. Spencer, H.
Islam and the Gospel of God. Delhi, S.P.C.K., 1956. 122 p. Rs. 1/4 "A comparison of the central doctrines of Christianity and Islam, prepared for the use of Christian workers among Muslims."

239. Stephen, Dorothea.
The Gita in Life. Mysore, C.L.S., 1956. 98 p. Rs. 2/8 A thoughtful introduction to the Gita and its significance for religious thought today.

240. Vaglieri, Laura Veccia.
An Interpretation of Islam. Translated from the Italian by Aldo Caselli. Washington, D.C., American Fazl Mosque, 1957. 87 p. $1.25 A brief but objective study of Islam, written by the Professor of Arabic and History of Muslim Civilization at the University of Naples, Italy. Originally published under the title, "Apologia dell' Islamismo" (Rome, 1925).

241. Wadiyar, Java Chamarava.
Dattatreya; the Way and the Goal. London, Allen & Unwin, 1957. 285 p. 21/- The Maharaja of Mysore and present Governor of Mysore State presents in an English translation the Jivanmukta Gita and the Avadhuta Gita with his own commentary. These treatises in Advaita Vedanta philosophy offer fundamental ideas toward a sympathetic understanding of many religions.

242. Watts, Alan W.
The Way of Zen. N.Y., Pantheon, 1957. 236 p. $4.75 Extremely readable account of Zen Buddhism in its historical and cultural setting, based on the original sources. The book tries to make understandable to serious students and interested laymen alike the role that this unique form of Asian philosophy has played in the religious life of China and Japan.

243. Welch, Holmes.
The Parting of the Way; Lao Tzu and the Taoist Movement. Boston, Beacon Press, 1957. 204 p. $5.00
A "pioneering book" that endeavors within the covers of one volume to interpret Lao Tzu's Tao Teh Ching and to give a comprehensive history of the whole movement of Taoism, together with the significance and message of Tao for the present day. Scholarly, imaginative, valuable.

244. Wolff, Otto.
Mahatma und Christus. Berlin, Lettner, 1955. 275 p. DM 17.80 A character study of Mahatma Gandhi and of modern Hinduism.

245. Wright, Brooks.
Interpreter of Buddhism to the West: Sir Edwin Arnold. N.Y., Bookman Associates, 1957. 187 p. $4.00
Biography of the famous non-dogmatic liberal of the last century who contributed so much to the spreading of a knowledge of Oriental culture and religion in the Western world.

See also: 135, 148, 152, 188.

C. JUDAISM

See: 135, 140, 149.

D. COMMUNISM

246. Colegrove, Kenneth.
Democracy Versus Communism. Princeton, N.J., Van Nostrand, 1957. 424 p. $4.95 A school textbook appraising the two conflicting ideologies, with well-organized material for study and discussion. A large number of scholars have contributed suggestions and criticisms. The viewpoint is strongly anti-Communist.

247. Cronyn, George W.
A Primer on Communism. N.Y., Dutton, 1957. 190 p. $2.50 200 fundamental questions most frequently asked are answered in a concise and factual way.

248. Djilas, Milovan.
The New Class. N.Y., Praeger, 1957. 214 p. $3.95 Devastating exposé of the Communist system today by a former Communist leader who is now in prison. Djilas shows how the Party has become a special class of political bureaucrats, self-deluded, determined to maintain, by ruthless means if necessary, their power over body and mind, their Party-state ownership, and their obsolete dogmas.

249. Fast, Howard.
The Naked God; the Writer and the Communist Party. N.Y., Praeger, 1957. 197 p. $3.50 An internationally famous American writer tells of his dramatic renunciation of the Communist Party following Krushchev's secret speech and the disillusionments which it brought.

250. Hunt, R. N. Carew.
A Guide to Communist Jargon. London, Geoffrey Bles, 1957. 169 p. 15/- The well-known writer on Marxism has prepared a helpful exposition of fifty concepts or ideological phrases (e.g. cult of personality, deviationism) commonly used in Communist speaking and writing. Useful for reference and interesting to read through.

251. McVicker, Charles P.
Titoism; Pattern for International Communism. N.Y., St. Martin's Press (London, Macmillan), 1957. 332 p. $6.00 The development of the political and the social system of Yugoslavia since the time the Titoists parted with Moscow, seen as a pilot project for a new pattern of "social democracy."

252. Kennedy, Malcolm.
A History of Communism in East Asia. N.Y., Praeger, 1957. 556 p. $8.50 A British expert on the Far East packs into one solid book an amazing amount of valuable information, on the development of Asian Communism during the past forty years. He sees clearly the interweaving of nationalism, colonialism, social revolution and Soviet imperialism. Bibliography and a good index.

253. Price, Frank W.
Marx Meets Christ. Philadelphia, Westminster, 1957. 176 p. $3.50 The fundamental issues between Christianity and Marxism on the world scene today; the confrontation envisaged as the meeting of two persons, two ideas, two systems and two faiths. The author was a missionary in China and lived under the Communist regime there for three years.

See also: 101, 102, 103, 105, 107, 135, 256.

254. Burtt, Edwin A.
Man Seeks the Divine; a Study in the History and Comparisons of Religions. N.Y., Harper, 1957. 561 p. $4.75 Attempt to present the distinctive features of the great living religions, the living core which makes them unique and important, and significant for man today.

255. James, E. O.
The Nature and Function of Priesthood; a Comparative and Anthropological Study. London, Thames and Hudson, 1955. 336 p. $5.00 A scholarly study of the concepts of priesthood from Babylonia and Assyria to post-Reformation Christianity. Includes discussion of priesthood and the seer, the diviner, the priest, the king; as well as sacrifices, absolution, jurisdiction, and sacred learning.

256. Kohn, Hans.
The Twentieth Century; the Challenge to the West and Its Response. 2nd ed. N.Y., Macmillan, 1957. 300 p. $4.50 New and enlarged edition of this important guide for understanding of western civilization, a history of ideas which have shaped its destiny; the book includes an especially valuable chapter on the challenge of the U.S.S.R.

257. Lyon, Quinter Marcellus.
The Great Religions. N.Y., Odyssey, 1957. 732 p. $5.50 Textbook on the major living religions of the world, with a chapter on truth and myth in the ancient religions, and a concluding prospect dealing with the author's philosophy of religion.

258. Martin, Walter R.
The Rise of the Cults. rev. ed. (The Modern Cult Library Series). Grand Rapids, Mich., Zondervan, 1957. 138 p. $2.00 A sketchy and somewhat emotional "introduction to non-Christian cults," e.g., Jehovah's Witnesses, Unity, Christian Science, Mormonism. The author is the director of Zondervan's Division of Cult Apologetics.

259. Parrinder, E. G.
An Introduction to Asian Religions. London, S.P.C.K., 1957. 138 p. 4/6 Comprehensive summary of the main Asian religions as they are encountered by Christianity today, a helpful guide and source of orientation for the general reader.

260. Shapiro, Harry L.
Aspects of Culture. New Brunswick, N.J., Rutgers University Press, 1956. 147 p. $3.25 Tracing of the biological evolutionary development of culture and a presentation of the positive role it can play in the course of history.

261. Toynbee, Arnold.
Christianity Among the Religions of the World. N.Y., Scribner, 1957. 116 p. $2.75 The position of Christianity and other religions is stated as they face the present-day secular form of religion: "our worship of ourselves in the plural in the shape of collective human power."

See also: 77, 87.

VIII. Social and Political Science

262. American Friends Service Committee.
Speak Truth to Power; a Quaker Study of International Conflict. Philadelphia, American Friends Service Committee, 1955. 72 p. $1.00 Implications of the Quaker philosophy of pacificism for the current international crisis; a study of alternatives and an affirmation of the "power of love."

263. Aron, Raymond and Heckschner, August.
Diversity of Worlds; France and the United States Look at Their Common Problems. N.Y., Reynal, 1957. 178 p. $3.50 An outstanding French political writer and the Director of the Twentieth Century Fund have presented an interesting discussion of the interests of their respective countries in the present day political situation.

264. Bauer, Peter H. and Yamer, Basil S.
The Economics of Under-Developed Countries. Chicago, University of Chicago Press, 1957. 271 p. $2.25 Two young scholars discuss with brilliant skill and understanding economic conditions and resources and also government programs and economic development in under-developed parts of the world; an excellent new volume in the Cambridge Economic Handbook Series.

265. Berle, Adolf A., Jr.
Tides of Crisis; a Primer of Foreign Relations. N.Y., Reynal, 1957. 328 p. $4.00 A challenging view of the problems facing the U.S. as a leader in world affairs, relating them to various crisis areas. The book emphasizes the need for long range principles and the consistent development of ideas in foreign relations.

266. Cleveland, Harlan and Mangone, Gerard J., ed.
The Art of Overseasmanship. Syracuse, N.Y., Syracuse University Press, 1957. 150 p. $3.00 Result of a special study by the Maxwell Graduate School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University, dealing with the million and a half Americans at work abroad. Eleven articles by experts in overseas work and foreign relations. Professor George Cressey, formerly of China, contributes the chapter on "Mission to Everywhere: The Religious Agencies."

267. Frazier, E. Franklin.
Race and Culture Contacts. N.Y., Knopf, 1957. 338 p. $6.50 An eminent American sociologist portrays modern racial problems on a wide global screen of history and cultural relations. An exceedingly comprehensive and valuable study with a short section on "the role of the missionary".

268. Gross, Ernest A.
The New United Nations. (Headline Series, no. 125). N.Y., Foreign Policy Association, 1957. 62 p. $.35 Report on the striking changes that the UN has undergone in recent years, also an exploration of the disarmament problem and on some future prospects of the UN.

269. Hartmann, Frederick H.
The Relations of Nations. N.Y., Macmillan, 1957. 637 p. $6.25 A penetrating and meaningful view into international relations in terms of inter-related principles; excellent bibliography is added to the more important literature in the field.

270. Laves, Walter H. C. and Thomson, Charles A.
UNESCO: Purpose, Progress, Prospects. Bloomington, Indiana University Press, 1957. 469 p. $7.50 The history of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the development of its program during its first ten years, together with an attempt to present some objective evaluation of its work.

271. Nixon, Justine Wroe.
Man's New Hope; a Religious Approach to Foreign Aid. N.Y., Church Peace Union, 1957. 112 p. $.50 A good summary of American overseas technical aid and its Christian application by a professor emeritus of Rochester Theological Seminary.

272. Sprout, Harold and Margaret.
Man-Milieu Relationship Hypotheses in the Context of International Politics. Princeton, N.J., Center of International Studies, Princeton University, 1956. 101 p. Study of the theory of man-milieu relationship.

273. Stoessinger, John George.
The Refugee and the World Community. Minneapolis, Minn., University of Minnesota Press, 1956. 239 p. $4.50 Examination of the response of both, the League of Nations and the United Nations, to one of the most challenging crises of our times; a study of the socio-psychological effects of refugee existence and a plea for open policies of immigration for the reintegration of the community of exiles into the community of nations.

274. Sztankay, Zoltan.
Christianity, Democracy and Technology. N.Y., Philosophical Library, 1957. 182 p. $3.75 An analysis of the close relationship between Christianity, democracy and technology, set against the materialistic philosophy of a supposedly international communism which undermines the organized world community.

275. Toussaint, Charmian Edwards.
The Trusteeship System of the United Nations. London, Stevens, 1956. 288 p. 37/6 Background, scope and machinery of this progressive system for dealing with colonies, based upon the fundamental notion that it complements, rather than replaces, national colonial administration.

276. United Nations. Bureau of Social Affairs.
Report on the World Social Situation, Including Studies of Urbanization in Under-Developed Areas. N.Y., Columbia University, 1957. 198 p. $1.75 Excellent analysis, very helpful source for statistical and general information.

See also: 88, 107, 108, 120, 128, 214, 246.

IX. Anthropology and Related Subjects

277. Montagu, Ashley.
Man: His First Million Years. Cleveland, Ohio, World, 1957. 249 p. $3.75 "A primer of anthropology, physical and cultural", an excellent classroom aid and laymen's introduction which will stimulate interest in the subject without claiming to exhaust the material.

278. Smithonian Institution. Bureau of American Ethnology.
Anthropological Papers, no. 49-56. (Bulletin 164). Washington, D.C., Government Printing Office, 1957. 355 p. $2.75 Eight monographs on various topics in the field of anthropology and American Indian studies.

See also: 85, 91, 123, 156, 219, 255.

X. Theological, Worship and Devotional

279. Hartman, Marvin J.
"He Restoreth My Soul". Anderson, Ind., Warner Press (Gospel Trumpet), 1957. 96 p. $1.50 Devotional helps, with selections from writings and prayers of well-known Christian writers and missionaries.

280. Hromadka, Joseph L.
Theology Between Yesterday and Tomorrow. Philadelphia, Westminster, 1957. 106 p. $2.75 Attempt to establish communications between two sections of Christendom upon a fellowship in Christ which transcends the differences in viewpoint of East and West.

281. Niles, Daniel T.
The Context In Which We Preach. Geneva, Switzerland, John Knox House Association, 1956. 16 p. The second annual John Knox House Lecture delivered by the Chairman of the World's Student Christian Federation.

XI. Publications of the Missionary Research Library 1957

Book Talk. Comments on the more important books of the past six months; published semi-annually; free to subscribers.

Book Notes. Issued monthly. Free to subscribers or upon request. 1957 issues: January, Living Faiths of Mankind; February, A World On The Move; March, Africa; April, Japan; May, Southeast Asia Among the World Powers; June-July, China; August, Summertime Reading; October, Latin America And The Caribbean; November, The World Mission Of The Church; December, World Communism And The West.

Occasional Bulletin. Published ten to sixteen times a year at the nominal subscription rate of $1.00 for the calendar year. No additional charge for postage, domestic or foreign.
Volume VIII, 1957:

No. 1. Limitations of an Intellectual Approach in Missions, by Daniel J. Fleming. $.15
2. The World-Wide Mission of the World-Wide Church; Extracts from Addresses Delivered at the Seventh Annual Assembly of the Division of Foreign Missions, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., Buck Hill Falls, Pennsylvania, November 26-29, 1956. $.15
3. My Self-Examination, by Pastor Wang Ming-tao. Translated by Frank W. Price. $.15
4. Current Periodicals in the Missionary Research Library, by John T. Ma. $.50
5. Missionary Books in the German Language, 1953-1956, by Erich Viering. $.15
6. The Younger Churches - Some Facts and Observations, Part I, by Frank W. Price. $.15
7. The Younger Churches - Some Facts and Observations, Part II, by Frank W. Price. $.50
8. The Selection and Training of the Overseas Personnel of the Christian Church, by Kenyon E. Moyer. $.15
9. The Bible in the Christian World Mission, by Frank W. Price. $.15
10. Church and Mission in the Scandinavian Countries, by O. G. Myklebust, and Bibliography of Scandinavian Protestant Missionary Books, 1952-1956, by Valborg Knudsen. $.15
11. Education for Christian Living in the Christian World Mission, by Everett M. Stowe. $.25
12. List of Theses in Foreign Missions and Related Subjects Accepted During the Academic Year 1956-1957, by Laura Person. $.15

Index to Volume VI (1955), Volume VII (1956) and Volume VIII (1957), $.15

Selected List of Current Books and Pamphlets, January-June, 1957. $.50
July-December, 1957. $.50

From Iran to Morocco; From Turkey to the Sudan, 1957, by Kenyon E. Moyer. $1.50

A Study of Missionary Motivation, Training and Withdrawal (1932-1952), by Kenyon E. Moyer, 1957. $2.00

XII. Index to Shortened Names of Publishers

SHORT FORM OF NAME	FULL NAME*	HOME OFFICE
Abingdon	Abingdon Press	Nashville, Tenn., and New York
Allen & Unwin	George Allen & Unwin, Ltd.	London
Augsburg	Augsburg Publishing House	Minneapolis, Minn.
Augustana	Augustana Book Concern	Rock Island, Ill.
Beacon Hill	Beacon Hill Press	Kansas City, Mo.
Bethany	Bethany Press	St. Louis, Mo.
Brazziler	George Brazziler, Inc.	New York
C. L. S.	Christian Literature Society	Mysore, India
C. M. S. Press	Church Missionary Society Press	London
Cargate	Cargate Press	London
Clarendon	Clarendon Press	London
Collins	William Collins Sons & Co., Ltd.	London
Criterion	Criterion Books	New York
Crowell	The Thomas Crowell Co.	New York
Day	John Day Co., Inc.	New York
Doubleday	Doubleday & Co., Inc.	Garden City, N.Y.
Dutton	E. P. Dutton & Co., Inc.	New York
Edinburgh House	Edinburgh House Press	London
Eerdman	William B. Eerdman's Publishing Co.	Grand Rapids, Mich.
Europa	Europa Publications, Ltd.	London
Greenwich	Greenwich Book Publishers	New York
Grove	Grove Press	New York
Hachette	Continental Publishers & Distributors, Ltd.	London
Harper	Harper and Brothers	New York
Heffer	W. Heffer & Sons, Ltd.	London
Highway	Highway Press	London
Holt	Henry Holt & Co., Inc.	New York
Houghton Mifflin	Houghton Mifflin Company	Boston, Mass.
Judson	Judson Press	Philadelphia, Pa.
Knopf	Alfred A. Knopf, Inc.	New York
Lippincott	J. B. Lippincott Company	Philadelphia, Pa.
Little, Brown	Little, Brown & Company	Boston, Mass.
Longmans, Green	Longmans, Green & Co., Inc.	New York and London
Lutterworth	Lutterworth Press	London
M. R. L.	Missionary Research Library	New York
MacGibbon	MacGibbon & Kee, Ltd.	London
Macmillan	The Macmillan Company	New York
McKay	David McKay Co., Inc.	New York
Muhlenberg	Muhlenberg Press	Philadelphia, Pa.
Muller	Frederick Muller, Ltd.	London
NCCC-U.S.A.	National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America	New York
Nelson	Thomas Nelson & Sons	London and New York
Odyssey	Odyssey Press, Inc.	New York
Pantheon	Pantheon Books, Inc.	New York
Praeger	Frederick A. Praeger, Inc.	New York

SHORT FORM OF NAME	FULL NAME*	HOME OFFICE
Regnery	Henry Regnery Co.	Chicago, Ill.
Reynal	Reynal & Co.	New York
Rider	Rider & Co	London
Ronald	The Ronald Press	New York
S. P. C. K.	Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge	London
Scribner	Charles Scribner's Sons	New York
Seabury	The Seabury Press	Greenwich, Conn.
Stevens	Stevens & Sons	London
Tuttle	Charles E. Tuttle Company	Rutland, Vt.
Vanguard	The Vanguard Press	New York
Vantage	Vantage Press, Inc.	New York
Van Nostrand	D. Van Nostrand Company, Inc.	Princeton, N.J. and New York
Wartburg	The Wartburg Press	Columbus, Ohio
Westminster	Westminster Press	Philadelphia, Pa.
World	The World Publishing Co.	New York
Yoseloff	Thomas Yoseloff, Inc.	New York
Zondervan	Zondervan Publishing House	Grand Rapids, Mich.

* Only the names of publishers appear in the above list whose complete firm names have been shortened. For other addresses, consult list of publishers in H. W. Wilson, Cumulative Book Index, which is available in most libraries.

GTU Library
3 2400 00645 5848

FOR REFERENCE

NOT TO BE TAKEN FROM THIS ROOM